LAVISHLY ILLUSTRATED BOOK OF DRAWINGS

"Diaries and Dreams" focuses its attention on the medium of drawing. Based on an exhibition, the book gathers images of artists dealing with dreamy experiences or personal accounts of reality. From paradisiac to nightmarish visions, from obsessions to fantasies, from desires to accidents, it leads the reader into the minds of artists such as Louise Bourgeois, Marlene Dumas, Marcel Dzama, and Jim Shaw, among others.

Beautifully realized the book dedicates 15 pages per artist, and is introduced by the curator Peter Weiermair.

In distribution for the Ursula Blickle Stiftung, Kraichtal.
