ARTIST'S BOOK

Stefan Marx (*1979) is an actor of the skateboard scene, whose drawings usually adorn productions of his label "The Lousy Livincompany." An expression of everyday's experience with a critical distance, his black and white drawings, overpainted flyers and enigmatic slogans are anchored in street culture but address our cultural awareness.

After a number of zines and independent publications, this book offers a first overview of his practice.

The publication is part of the series of artists' projects edited by Christoph Keller.
