

Gian Paolo Minelli
The Skin of the Cities
La piel de las ciudades

Program
Monographs & Artists' Books

Edited by
Jürg Trösch

Authors
Tobia Bezzola

Edition
English / German / Italian / Spanish
January 2010
ISBN: 978-3-03764-097-5
Hardcover, 245 x 345 mm
156 pages
Images 122 color
CHF 72 / EUR 48 / £ 39 / US 70

Photographic essay

With its carefully chosen pictures, this book provides an overview of Gian Paolo Minelli's work over the last decade. Minelli (*1968) was raised in Chiasso (Switzerland), but has lived and worked for some years mainly in Buenos Aires. The photographs were taken in thematic series, often over an extended period. Until now, they have mostly been exhibited and published separately; indeed, many are being shown here for the first time. The choice of images is designed to demonstrate that behind the various work cycles, portraits, urban landscapes of the Piedra Buena Barrio, awnings suspended over parking lots, props left behind in the abandoned Teatro Colón, the eloquent walls of the former Cárcel de Caseros penitentiary, and the portraits of illegal immigrants in Rome, there lies a common, powerful approach. Here, photography is neither mere reporting of facts, nor style-obsessed gimmickry. Yet the expressive power of an individual artistic style and a considered method give rise to images that refuse to be constrained by the boundaries of genre. Architectural photography becomes a social document, and social reportage becomes an artistic project.

Published with Codax Publishers, Zurich.